PARTICIPATE!

- Call for Organisers for the 2015 Global Day of Citizen Action

On 16 May 2015, CIVICUS will be coordinating the second Global Day of Citizen Action, an event that takes place around the world, in which ordinary citizens tell us whether they feel free to speak out organise and take action. By organising an event, you'll help us understand what's happening in your country and you'll help create awareness about the importance of civic space.

This year, to help raise our voice, we've joined the global action/2015 campaign that calls for public mobilisation targeted at world leaders, to urge them to agree to ambitious and transformative goals in the post-2015 development framework. <http://civicus.us6.list-manage1.com/track/click?u=9283ff78aa53cccd2800739dc&id=fb0b5e774f&e=4492be4a68>

- Now Open: Applications for The 2015 Civil Society Exchange Program.

The Civil Society Exchange Program (CSEP) provides civil society practitioners an opportunity to work with an organization of their choosing to engage in joint projects, skill and knowledge sharing, relationship building, and/or other activities designed by the applicant. Exchanges can last between two weeks and two months. http://www.internationalpeaceandconflict.org/forum/topics/now-open-applications-for-the-2015-civil-society-exchange-program?xg_source=activity#.VSvUNfmUeYB

- Take Action on 18 April for Global Citizen 2015 Earth Day

With just three months until the Financing for Development Summit in Addis Ababa and less than six months until the SDG Summit at the UN, join a Call to Action on 18 April to pressure the world's finance ministers to make the Sustainable Development Goals a success. <http://civicus.us6.list-manage.com/track/click?u=9283ff78aa53cccd2800739dc&id=c7a56f0fdd&e=4492be4a68>
